Dear Janhvi,

The baggage has been checked and all is in order. There is no discrepancy and items have reached safe. My feedback is as below:

The service provided for goods packing and transportation in India was highly professional and done promptly. However, the shipment got delayed and reached me only after 02 months. I understand that this delay was due to delayed availability of vessel/ dock issue at Mumbai port. The delivery of goods in Canada was also done highly professionally and items unloaded at my residence in a very efficient manner.

I thank Agarwal packers for transporting my baggage and look forward to doing business with you again, should the opportunity arise.

Many thanks and best regards

Kranti sharma
