Hello Abhishek,

This is a small note to inform you that our shipment was delivered in excellent condition to our residence on Saturday. I would especially like to thank you and your team for the efforts you put in with the packaging of our temple.

Other than some minor damage caused because of the marble glue coming off (because of the extreme cold) and the slight damage to the supporting columns, the temple arrived in very good shape. I would also like to express my thanks to Veronica from A-Plus and Jenny from Sunny Way Moving for making sure that everything went smoothly at this end.

Regards.
