

Business Standard

Agarwal Packers & Movers sets up first int'l office in S'pore

Press Trust of India | Singapore
April 3, 2016 Last Updated at 12:57 IST

India's leading Logistics player Agarwal Packers and Movers Ltd (APML) has opened its first international office in Singapore to facilitate relocation of homes both within the country and across the globe.

The Singapore operations would be spearheaded by Abhishek Raj Singh who has been with the group for the last seven years presiding the International Division, the company said in a statement.

"In India we have proven ourselves, the brand stands for quality, out of box thinking and providing customer delight. Singapore packing and moving industry market is about Rs 1000 crore. We see our brand gaining immediate acceptance in being the chosen packer and mover brand in the county," Chairman and Managing Director of Agarwal Movers Group, Ramesh Agarwal said.

The company opened its office here last month.

APML has been in the relocation space since the last 28 years. In India, the brand has moved 85,000 homes locally and 1000 internationally in 2015-16.

The brand provides door-to-door services from India to 182 countries and vice-versa where it works through its partner network.