Introducing APML

We are a name synonymous with relocation in the country. We have gained a foothold in the region by rendering end-to-end moving services much to the satisfaction of our clients. Our three decades of experience have familiarized us with the nitty-gritty of packing and moving like no other player in the business. We have earned trust and validation of legions of satisfied clients whom we served with our heart and soul and who have made us a reliable household name. We have not only ensconced ourselves in India, but have also gone ahead to serve as many as 182 countries globally. Having been conferred the FAIM PLUS certification, APML is now a FIDI affiliate. Additionally we are a proud member of IAM (International Association of Movers), USA and have our patent/TM registered in USA, Canada, Europe, Australia and many more countries. We are backed by a robust infrastructure and well-connected network with advanced technology and industry's most stalwart professionals, making us more confident than ever to come to the best service of our clients. We have transformed ourselves into a full-service moving company that takes up and pulls off both domestic and international relocation demands with equal technical expertise.
