Apologies for the delay in my response. The following is a combined feedback given by my wife and daughter:

"The packers came across as very helpful and they segregated and packed the household items very well. Proper packing of crockery and breakable items was ensured by using sufficient layers of packaging material. The packers were humble in nature and followed all instructions given not only by their senior official, Mr. Mukesh Kumar, but also those by us. All in all, they proved to be very efficient and we had a pleasant experience dealing with Agarwal Packers and Movers".
